Grand Prairie — T E X A S — PARKS AND RECREATION

Epic Campout Liability Waiver

Emergency Treatment Release: In the event I cannot be contacted to make arrangements for emergency medical treatment I authorize the person in charge to seek and obtain emergency medical treatment for myself or my child. I also authorize transportation to the nearest medical facility in the event it should become necessary.

Liability Waiver: I agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the City of Grand Prairie, its elected and appointed officials, representatives, and any employee or agent of the City of Grand Prairie from any and all claims on behalf of any person, firm, corporation, or agent, including the Instructor, arising from participation in this activity/activities. I certify that I understand any dangers inherent to my participation in this activity/activities and further state that I am physically sound enough to participate. I hereby relieve the City of Grand Prairie, its employees, agents, instructors, elected officials and contractors of all liability that occurs by my participation in all programs/classes.

Personal Belongings: I understand that the City of Grand Prairie is not responsible for my property and release them of any liability for theft of, loss of, or damage to my property.

Refund or Transfer Policy: When an event is canceled by the Parks and Recreation Department due to low enrollment or other circumstances, you will be offered a full refund. Participant-initiated refunds and transfer requests must be in writing and must be approved by the Manager of Events, and will only be granted when a participant submits their transfer or refund request to the Parks and Recreation Department at least 3 days prior to the event date.

Furthermore, I have read and understand the refund policy and understand that the City of Grand Prairie may use photographs of participants for promotions.
